About Oliso

At Oliso, we like gadgets and state of the art technology as much as our neighbors. Dare we say, more than our neighbors? We dare. We admire the innovativeness of a design that makes life simpler, that surprises us with straightforward functionality and delights us with useful, special features.

Other things we like? A crisply ironed collar, a freshly pressed pillowcase, a thick, pink salmon steak, Mom's homemade blackberry jam... the list goes on. Our point being, that taking pride in the every day, makes every day special.

We believe in a human-centered design process. Our San-Francisco based team of inventors, engineers and researchers believe that great ideas are best inspired by listening to people and then designing products to fit their needs and simplify their lives. To date, we've expanded our product lines to include the award-winning Oliso® Smart Iron™ and the Oliso® FRESHKEEPER™ TECHNOLOGY.
